

5th January 2016

Dear Parent / Carer,

Family English Course

Would you like to know more about how your children are taught to read and write?

Come along to a Family English Course where you will learn:

- How phonics are used to prepare children for reading.
- When and how letters are introduced in schools.
- How to support your child with reading, writing and spelling.
- Fun literacy activities to do at home.
