If your child still has a reading challenge book please can you return it back to school before the end of the year.

Weekly Family Task

As the Nursery year is almost finished, we are talking to the children about their move to their new classroom. To support your child with transition, please could you spend time talking to them about their new teacher and classroom? Have a go at drawing a picture to give to your new teacher.

If you have any questions please speak to your child's teacher.
