Dear Year 6,

House Captain Presentations

Thank you for applying to be a House Captain- we're very excited that we have received so many applications this year! As we have had so many applicants, the presentations will take place across two days, on the afternoons of Monday 18th September and Tuesday 19th September.

We have split you into groups of 2-3 for your timeslot to minimise the amount of disruption caused when you leave class. The groups have been listed below- please come to the meeting room with the rest of your group at the time listed next to your name below.

Your presentation should be around 2 minutes long and can take any form you like- it could be a song, a poster, a poem- anything that shows us why you should be chosen to be the captain of your house. You will be presenting to Mrs Tevlin, Miss Clifton and Miss Linton from the school office.

Remember- these presentations should be fun and they are nothing to be scared of! We can't wait to see them!

Kind regards,

Miss Linton, Miss Clifton and Mrs Tevlin
