English

We will be reading and writing our own reviews on Shirley Hughes' Dogger this week :)

Our work will build up to a Big Write (an independent piece of writing) where we will be imagining we have lost our own precious objects...

Maths

Our new unit is multiplication and division. We will begin by grouping objects—what is the difference between an equal and an unequal group? Can we make equal groups from any given number?

Things to think about:

How can you represent a group of objects? Can you represent them in a different way?

Ways to help at home: Talk about what equal and unequal means. Can your child show you in different ways e.g. a written calculation or a picture?
