English

We will be reading Katie Morag and developing our describing skills. We will write character descriptions about Katie's two grandmas.

Things to think about: Which words would we use to describe someone's appearance (how they look)? Which words would we use to describe their character (personality)?

Maths

This week we are delving into the world of fractions!

Things to think about: What is a whole? What is a fraction? How many parts make up one whole? What fraction names do you know? What does each number of a fraction represent?

Can you split your pizza into halves? Quarters? Thirds?!

Homework: Please check your homework books for the latest homework.
