Reading Records and Books Can all children ensure that their school reading books and reading records are returned to school by Monday 16th July.

Summer Holiday Task:

Your task, should you chose to accept it, is to have a wonderful, fun-filled summer holiday! You must cherish your time with your family and friends and make many happy memories together. If you want to keep your brain ticking over, then read a new book, help an adult with the shopping budget or visit some exciting historical places. Come back to Year 5 refreshed,, happy and eager to conquer your new school year!
