Fortnightly Topic Task

Our next fortnightly task of 2019 relates to our topic on the Anglo-Saxons. We will be studying the life of Alfred the Great and would like the children to do a little research. Who was he? When did he live? Why was he called 'the Great'. Children can prepare a poster or media presentation, produce a basic book or make an annotated timeline of his life. The deadline for this work is Friday 8th February.
