Dear Parents/Carers,

British Values Day

Oswald Road Primary School would like to embrace and uphold all of our British Values and we will therefore be holding our annual British Values Day on Friday 5th July.

The four British Values which we will be talking to the children about will be: democracy; the rule of law; individual liberty; and mutual respect and tolerance for those with different faiths and beliefs and for those without faith.

As a school we actively promote these British Values every day, so we have decided to dedicate a really fun and enjoyable day where we can celebrate these values as a school, living together in unity and peace. The children will take part in different activities based around British Values throughout the day and we are giving children the choice to wear their own cultural clothing or something white, red or blue on the day.

This will be a really good opportunity for the children to increase their knowledge of the four British Values and how they are being implemented across the school and our country.

Kind regards,

Khadijah Iqbal
