Announcements & Reminders

Spare Clothes:

We have noticed a shortage of our Nursery spare clothes, therefore we would like to kindly remind you to please ensure there are enough spare clothes on your child's peg.

Reading books and records:

Your child's book will be changed every week, as long as the original book is in their bag along with their reading record. Please can these be sent in every week in order for your child to receive a new book. Many thanks.

Fortnightly Family Task:

Weekend News:

We have started sharing weekend news with our children on a Monday morning. Please feel free to discuss what happened over the weekend with your child and bring in photographs they would like to share with the class to prompt them to talk about what they did.

If you have any questions please speak to your child's keyworker.
