Announcements & Event Reminders

The final event for children to look forward to this half term is our field trip around the Chorlton area, focusing on the environment and incorporating a visit to Longford Park to do some orienteering and other activities. This will take place on the morning of Thursday 13th February.

In order to do this activity, we are politely requesting help from our community of parents and carers. If you are able to help, please could you contact either school via the normal e-mail, or your classes teacher directly.

Swimming – This will continue as normal until further notice.

English & Maths

Next week in English we will be completing our work on descriptive writing.

In maths we will be focusing on area and perimeter.

Fortnightly Topic Task

Our next topic is all about the Anglo-Saxons. We would like children to make an Anglo-Saxon artefact of some kind, be it small or large. In the past we have had shields, weapons, purses, garments of various kinds and even shoes! If your child would like to make something these will be displayed in class. The deadline for this work is Friday 28th February.
