World Book Day

English

We will be starting to read Anna Hibiscus this week and comparing and contrasting settings. We will also be writing character descriptions. For Wednesday, please could you send in some photos of your family - extended family if possible! Thank you!

Spellings

The 'ee' sound spelt 'ey': key, donkey, monkey, chimney, valley, trolley, journey, turkey, jockey, kidney.

Maths

We will be moving onto fractions. We will be learning how to find different fractions of shapes and amounts. We will compare fractions using the inequality signs $<$ $>$ and $=$ and discover equivalent fractions e.g. one half is the same as two quarters.

Fractions we will learn are - halves, quarters, thirds.
