Announcements & Event Reminders

The children enjoyed our Anglo-Saxon day yesterday, where they heard the story of Beowulf told by our storyteller and then did a variety of activities designed to bring the world of the Anglo-Saxons to life.

World Book Day

Next Thursday is World Book Day and the children are, as ever, invited to dress up as their favourite book character, in return for a small donation to charity.

Swimming – This will continue as normal until further notice.

English & Maths

Next week in English we will be continuing our work on the story of Beowulf by looking at news reports.

In mathematics, we will be continuing our work on fractions, focusing on subtracting fractions and calculating fractions of amounts.

Spellings for this week :

science	crescent
discipline	fascinate
scent	scissors
ascent	descent
scientist	scenery

Spanish Phrase of the Week

La Nochevieja	New Year's Eve
¡Feliz año Nuevo!	Happy New Year
El día de Año Nuevo	New Year's Day
El día de Reyes	Epiphany

Please remember that all children are required to read daily and add to their reading records

Fortnightly Topic Task

Our next fortnightly task of 2019 relates to our topic on the Anglo-Saxons. We will be studying the life of Alfred the Great, and would like the children to do a little research. Who was he? When did he live? Why was he called 'the Great'? Children can prepare a poster or media presentation, produce a basic book or make an annotated timeline of his life. The deadline for this work is Friday 13th March.
