English

We will start off the week by writing about our half term holidays. Remember what makes a good sentence!

Our book of the week is Tattybogle and we will practise orally retelling the story in pairs.

We will also write our own blurbs for the story, which we will then go on to edit and up-level (make better!)

Maths

Spooky subtraction and addition!

This week we will be linking our maths learning to Halloween. We will be practising our addition and subtraction skills and finding out how numbers link together e.g. if I know that  $13 + 8 = 21$ , what else do I know?
