

Alex Park Democratic School

EXPERIENCED ENGLISH LEAD TEACHER FOR A SMALL DEMOCRATIC SCHOOL

Part-time. Competitive salary. Manchester.

Alex Park Democratic School is the only primary democratic school in the North West of England. We are a small independent community school lead by the children with the teachers as facilitators.

We are looking for an experienced primary school teacher with a real love for teaching English language and literature who can join us to lead the development of our academic curriculum.

We believe another education is possible, we have always put our values and ideas into practice. We believe in children, we believe every child has the right to be themselves, we believe children have the right to make mistakes.

All our children are seen and heard.

Part and parcel of our school ethos is children being kind with themselves and each other.

You will have a wide range of experience of teaching in mainstream. You need to have an excellent understanding of the English National Curriculum especially in English and Maths.

You will be working in a mix aged small class with a maximum of 25 children, between ages 5-11 with another qualified teacher and an artist.

You will be responsible for developing an effective scheme of work for English and keeping an eye on the maths scheme. You will ensure that children progress steadily and contribute towards children developing healthy long term habits of curiosity and a can-do /why not attitude.

If you are interested please request an application form and job description by writing to susana.lopez@alexandraparkclc.co.uk. If you would like to have an informal chat to discuss this position further, please call Susana Lopez on 0161 2268080.